

ed / ing adjectives

Circle the correct option.

1. A: I'm reading a fascinating / fascinated book about snakes.

B: I didn't even know you were interested / interesting in animals.

2. A: The journey was very tired / tiring. We didn't get home until midnight.

B: Yes, you look tired / tiring. Why don't you have a quiet weekend?

3. A: Are you excited / exciting about your trip?

B: Yes! It will be excited / exciting to go on an adventure on my own.

4. A: We were very surprised / surprising to meet our neighbours on the beach in Brazil.

B Wow. That's amazed / amazing!

5. A: I was really bored / boring on that tour this morning. Were you?

B: Yes! That guide was annoyed / annoying. He talked like a robot. And he didn't tell us anything very surprised / surprising.

6. A: What's the most frightened / frightening thing that has ever happened to you?

B: When we were camping in Ethiopia and we heard a leopard outside the tent. We were terrified / terrifying!

7. A: I'm worrying / worried about Tom. He stays out very late with his friends all the time.

B: That doesn't sound very worrying / worried to me. Isn't that just normal teenage behavior?