A Day at the Beach

I'm at the beach today, and it's a beautiful sunny day. There's so much happening around me! Let me tell you about it.

The children are _____ sandcastles near the shore. They are _____ a great time. The lifeguard is _____ the swimmers in the water. She's _____ her red swimsuit and blowing her whistle to make sure everyone is safe. A little further down the beach, some friends are _____ beach volleyball on the soft, golden sand. They are _____ and cheering each other on as they pass the ball back and forth.

Look up at the sky. A man is _____ a colorful kite. A woman is _____ a quiet moment under her umbrella. She's _____ a book. A family is having a lovely picnic. They're _____ on a blanket on the grass nearby. The waves are _____ against the rocks. People are _____ in the ocean.

The sun is _____ brightly in the clear blue sky, making everything look even more beautiful. Someone is _____ pictures of the landscape. Seagulls are _____ overhead, searching for food. A couple is _____ hand in hand along the shoreline, leaving footprints in the wet sand as the waves wash over their feet.

Two surfers are _____ waves, riding them. And all around, friends are _____ and enjoying their time together. The beach is a lively place, filled with a sense of joy. It's a wonderful place to be, with so many things happening all at once.
