

Put the verb in brackets into the best correct form to denote future action.
(Don't use contracted forms!!!)

1. In just one week, I _____ (run) my own business.
2. Watch out! You _____ (knock) over those bottles!
3. We are sure Vera _____ (be) a famous fashion designer one day.
4. The last bus to Ramenskoye from Kotelniki _____ (leave) at 11:30 pm.
5. I can't meet you at 8:00 tomorrow. I _____ (take) my brother to school.
6. Now that I've saved up enough money I _____ (buy) a new PC.
7. Are you sure you _____ (clean) the living room before the guests arrive?
8. It would be better if you didn't call us at 7:00. We _____ (have) dinner then.
9. By noon, the fire from the powerful explosion _____ (burn) for 12 hours straight.
10. I can't let you borrow my laptop this afternoon. I _____ (use) it all the day.
11. The mechanic says the car _____ (repair) by the end of the week.
12. By the time we reach Voronezh, we _____ (drive) for five hours.
13. His new book is nearly finished. I think it _____ (publish) by the end of the year.
14. A: Would you like chocolate or cherry syrup on your waffle?
B: I _____ (have) some cherry syrup, please.
15. A: The summer sales always _____ (start) in August. It's in a month's time.
B: I can't wait to go shopping!

A quiet evening in Russia