

Name:

Complete the sentences using yet, just or already.

The adventure of Jisoo, Miku and Spiderman.

Once upon a time, there were three best friends named Jisoo, Miku, and Spiderman. They decided to have an adventure for the day. They had already planned their journey, but they hadn't started it yet.

Jisoo, a brave girl, had just packed her backpack with all the necessary things. Miku, a smart girl, had already brought her map of the town. Spiderman, an adventurous boy, had just finished tying his shoelaces. They were ready to go!

They set off on their bicycles. Jisoo who had lived in the town her whole life, had already explored most of the places, but there was one special hidden spot she hadn't discovered yet.

After riding for a while, they arrived at a beautiful park surrounded by colorful flowers. It was so beautiful, that Miku took out her notebook to write a song. She had just finished writing the song when Jisoo shouted, "I've found it! The hidden spot I've never been to!"

Name:

The friends followed Jisoo's lead through a river full of fish and frogs. They had just arrived at this magical place, and it was amazing.

Spiderman, being the adventurous friend, had already jumped into the river with a loud splash. Jisoo and Miku just joined him in the water. They had never swum in a river before!

After their refreshing swim, Jisoo, Miku, and Spiderman decided to have a picnic. They took out the delicious sandwiches and snacks they had brought. Jisoo had just opened the basket when they noticed a family of ducks swimming by. It was adorable!

After eating, the friends packed up and went back home. They had just had an incredible adventure, exploring new places and creating lasting memories. Mia, Lily, and John felt really happy. They had just experienced a day filled with excitement, laughter, and friendship.

