FESTA DAS TOCHAS FLORIDAS /PROCESSION DO “ALELUIA”

The Flowered Torch Procession is one of a kind in the country; it's a unique manifestation of the people's feelings. Every Easter Sunday, the streets are covered with flowers and the torch is lifted high in honour of the resurrected Christ. "He resurrected like he said! Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!" These words echo throughout the flower covered streets.

The village is embellished and the balconies ornamented with beautiful quilts. Throughout the afternoon, the Parish Church's churchyard welcomes the sounds and flavours where one can enjoy folk music concerts and buy regional snacks and sweets. Don't forget to try the typical São Brás de Alportel's soft almonds.

FEIRA DA SERRA (SERRA FAIR)

<http://feiradaserra.cm-sbras.pt/pt/menu/681/feira-da-serra.aspx>

In the last weekend of July the Serra Fair opens its doors to the genuine Algarve. This Fair was designed by InLoco, which is a local association whose aim is to help and support the local producers and to enhance the products of Serra do Caldeirão.

For four days, the colours, the flavours and the know-how of the mountains comes together in a voyage through time in search of our roots, of tradition made stories, legends and habits which are masterfully sculpted in stone, weaved in the weaver's loom, painted in canvas, sang in a chant and danced with soul.

Feira da Serra opens the doors to the genuine Algarve and invites you to travel back in time, to discover the traditions of the people of the mountains, who mix tradition with the latest innovations, bridging the best of the past and the technology of the future!
