

1. Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. They're selling jeans with a 50% _____.
2. I took the shoes back to the shop and got a _____ because they were badly made.
3. You must have a _____ to get your money back for returned items.
4. "These shoes were only €15." "What a _____!"
5. The _____ said €25, but I only paid €18 for it.

2. Complete the sentences with the words below.

CEO contract entrepreneur funding income investors profit salary

- 1 She gets a very good _____ from her investments, so she doesn't need to work.
- 2 The starting _____ for this job is £21,000 per year.
- 3 He is the _____ of the company and is responsible for every decision that is made.
- 4 Our company is going to make a big _____ this year, so we're very pleased.
- 5 When she started her company, she found some very generous _____ who put in a lot of money.
- 6 I am too careful to be an _____. I don't like risk!
- 7 He asks his solicitor to read through every new _____ before he agrees to sign it.
- 8 We got the _____ for our project from a company that helps new businesses get started.