

Unit 10 - Vocabulary

Choose one of the words to complete each sentence. Use each word just once.

1. I prefer to have a _____ phone. I just want one I can make calls with!
2. My children think my computer is very _____, but it's only seven years old.
3. This old Daimler is a _____ car and very expensive of course.
4. Have you got the _____ version of the program on your computer?
5. Do you find it _____ to have a touch screen on your computer?
6. I like your shoes. That's a very _____ style at the moment.
7. I need a _____ tablet for my father. He's not very good with technology.

Choose the correct options.

1. Have you been productive / product today?
2. They only bought that one because they saw it advertised / advert on the TV.
3. We didn't make a single sale / sell all day!
4. She is a wine producer / production in Portugal.
5. He works with me in marketing / market.
6. This product / production is only available in the USA.
7. I'm giving a presentation / presenter on Friday.
8. What's the most important invention / invent of the 20th Century?

Match the questions someone asked a website with the answers they got.

Where can I see what different things are available on your website?

You'll see some useful links that you can click on.

Where do I go to find out information about you?

You'll get a good introduction to everything we offer on our home page.

How do I look for the particular information I want?

It's mostly thanks to adverts. And we also sell a few products.

How do I get to other pages or websites with similar information?

Click on the 'About us' page.

How do you pay for your website?

Go to 'Contact' at the bottom of any page.

Where can I find your email and phone number?

Use the search box at the top of the page.