

Unit 2

Present Perfect vs Present Perfect Continuous

Choose the correct verb form.

1. How long have you liked / did you like / were you liking. You should ask her out.
2. Todd Portillo wrote / has written / has been writing the third part of his successful historical trilogy. It's nearly finished.
3. I haven't believed / didn't believe / haven't been believing anything you've said since we started this conversation. What's going on?
4. How long have we stayed / have we been staying / did we stay in this awful hostel? The bed is uncomfortable and the sheets are dirty.
5. He's feeling nervous because he never flew / has never flown / 's never been flying in a plane before.
6. We 've gone / went / 've been going to Australia twice a year since our daughter moved out there ten years ago.
7. How many times was I telling you / have I told / have I been telling you not to leave valuables in the hotel when we go out?
8. She 's been worrying / was worried / 's been being worried about all the insects in the jungle – so much so that she won't talk about anything else.
9. If you think that your mobile phone has stolen / was being stolen / h has been stolen, you should go to the police straight away.
10. How long has it been / was it being / was it since you last flew in a plane?