Section 10: Lesson

Making Predictions

- 1) It was a long walk home from school. Sanjiv was hot and wanted a cold drink. "Mom, I'm home!" called Sanjiv. Sanjiv got a glass and put it on the table. Then he pulled out a chair and sat down. Mom picked up an apple and a bottle of milk. She put the apple and the bottle of milk on the table in front of Sanjiv.

Think about what you read. What clues in the story can help you make a guess or prediction. What will Sanjiv probably do next?

Look at the Graphic Organiser below and type one clue and a prediction. One was done for you.
