Tips for being a super-organised student

posted 2 hours ago by Amy

I have always admired students who hand their homework in on time and never forget to do it. Me, on the other hand, ... OK, I admit. I'm terrible at getting myself organised!

But lately I've started keeping a small study diary. I write down everything I need to do and when it needs to be done by. Then I write a reminder a few days before the date just in case. It's helping.

So I was wondering, what are your tips for getting organised? Post a comment below. I'm hoping we can all share some tips to teach us

Hana Good question, Amy. I always spend about five minutes at the end of the day tidying up the desktop on my computer. I make a backup of important documents. I delete things I don't need any more and put everything into the correct folder.

Amy Nice tip, Hana. I think it's a good idea to do a little bit of tidying up every day. Then it becomes a habit and your desktop is always organised.

Gloria The most important thing is to start studying a few weeks before the exams and not leave it until the night before! That's just common sense, I think.

Amy Thanks, Gloria! I agree.

Lou Hi, Amy. My tip is to have a big noticeboard in your bedroom, divided into different sections. I've got one. It's a whiteboard. I've got a section for each school subject and another one for other stuff. I use board pens to write reminders and I make sure I look at it every day. The best part is when I remove something from the board!

Amy Great tip, Lou. I've got a cork board with pins. I use it in the same way.

1. Amy is very good at handing in her homework on time.
2. Amy writes down the date she has to hand in her homework.
3. Hana tidies her computer desktop twice a day.
4. Amy thinks Hana's tip is good.
5. Gloria thinks the date you start studying is important.
6. Lou thinks the best thing about having a noticeboard is using board pens.
