

Choose: active or passive

1. He was excited to have found the way in the snowstorm.
Perfect Infinitive (active).
2. He likes to read articles about weather.

3. Mary is disappointed not to have been included in the research expedition.

4. The child didn't like to be washed.

5. I am glad to have seen polar nights again.

6. The problem was to get the place in time.

7. It seems to be snowing in the mountains.

8. Such phenomena as heavy snowfalls are to be observed in the north.

9. It was a real pleasure to be speaking to him.

10. He was amazed to see the disaster results.

11. It seems to have been raining.

12. They are pleased to have visited the weather camp.

13. He pretended not to be listening.
