

Name: _____

Score: _____

Date: _____

Weekly Reading Quiz – Q2:1

1. "If we put up posters, then anyone can find Wilbur," Said Li-Jun. Ty looked at him strangely, "That's kind of the point." Why did Ty look at Li-Jun strangely? a. Ty was frustrated Li-Jun didn't like his posters. b. Ty was worried he wouldn't get his share of the reward money. c. Ty was confused about why Li-Jun wouldn't want anyone to find Wilbur. d. Ty was worried about Wilbur and wanted to start looking right away.	2. According to the text, what is the meaning of the word, unassuaged? Unassuaged by his one-word answer, Jayla pressed on. "You're obviously looking for something. What is it?" a. to be unsatisfied b. to be angry c. to be thrilled d. to be concerned
3. What inference can you make about Jayla based on the text? a. She is a selfish person because she did not want to help look for Wilbur without receiving reward money. b. She is a caring person because she helped look for Wilbur and got more people to help, too. c. She is a bully because she insisted Li-Jun tell her what he was looking for. d. She is unprepared because she did not bring as many supplies as Elinor.	4. Which of the following lines from the text proves that Li-Jun felt guilty about not telling his friends about the reward? a. "Li-Jun perused the 'Missing Kitten' poster. There was no mention of the reward." b. "Li-Jun closed his eyes, too embarrassed to look at them when he admitted his omission." c. "Ugh, fifty divided by two is twenty-five." d. "If we put up posters, then anyone can find Wilbur."
5. Read the story, "Finding Wilbur". Write a journal entry from Li-Jun's point of view explaining the events of the day. Focus on the lesson he learned and the impact of that lesson. Cite evidence from the text in the journal entry.	