Zheng is a famous _____ in China. People come from everywhere to see his paintings. Zheng is proud of his paintings—maybe too proud. He thinks he's the best artist who ever lived.

One day, Zheng hears that the Emperor wants a new portrait of himself. So, Zheng goes to the palace to show the Emperor his paintings. Many other artists are there, but Zheng is sure that the Emperor will like his paintings the best. But when he shows them to the Emperor's advisor, the advisor just laughs.

"Go to the Li _____," says the advisor. "The greatest artist in the world lives there. You can learn a lot from her."

Zheng is very angry, but he packs his bags and travels to the Li River. He arrives at a village and asks a woman, "Where does the great artist live?" The woman smiles and points to the river.

The next morning, Zheng takes a _____ and starts his journey to find the greatest artist in the world. The small boat travels quietly down the river, past _____, mountains, and waterfalls.

Then, as evening comes, the sky and water turn a beautiful blue color. It is so beautiful that Zheng begins to cry. And then he understands: the greatest artist in the world is _____.
