Living on the streets

A hundred million people around the world <sup>1</sup>are living / live on the streets at the moment, on dirty pavements or outside shops. Of course, the problem is very serious in poor countries, but it <sup>2</sup>exists / is existing in rich countries, too. In Europe, 3 million people <sup>3</sup>sleep / are sleeping on the streets right now. There are many causes: some, for example, <sup>4</sup>have / are having no home after a period in prison or when they have arguments with family. Unfortunately, the problem <sup>5</sup>isn't going / doesn't go away and this is partly because houses <sup>6</sup>cost / are costing a lot nowadays. However, charities <sup>7</sup>work / are working hard, especially in the winter, to put roofs over people's heads and to improve the lives of people on the street. This year, there are many interesting projects. For example, charities around the world <sup>8</sup>are organizing / organize a huge football competition for people with no home.
