

Gun Control

Read the arguments, drag everyone to the advantage or disadvantage box

	Banning people from being able to purchase guns legally will put criminals in business	Gun control laws do not prevent criminals from getting access to guns and using them to commit violent crimes
More gun control reduces suicide rates	Violent crimes reduce with more citizens having access to guns	Easy access to guns leads to more violent crimes
Citizens have the right to bear arms	Widespread gun ownership easily makes guns fall into the wrong hands	Restrictive gun control laws reduce homicide rates in the country
	Banning civilians from being able to legally purchase guns makes the government too powerful	Guns in the home increase the likelihood of someone in the house dying a violent death
