

Listen and repeat.

We use the Imperative when we tell someone to do or not to do something.
Stand up. Don't sit down.

1 Circle the imperatives.

Ahmed: Youssef, help! Come here.
Youssef: What's wrong, Ahmed?
Ahmed: Jump on the table. I can't reach the biscuits!
Youssef: OK. Now what?
Ahmed: Throw them down to me! Don't break the bowl.
Youssef: OK. Catch!
Ahmed: Ouch! Be careful, Youssef!

Simon says . . .

Follow your teacher's command only if it starts with Simon says.

Teacher: Simon says, clap your hands.
Students: (they clap their hands)
Teacher: Stamp your feet.
Students: (they remain as they were)

We use prepositions of place to say where people, animals or things are.

1

Look at the picture and circle the correct preposition.

Peter is sitting 1) between / opposite his mother and father. They are watching TV. Peter's dog, Blackie, is sleeping 2) behind / next to the sofa. There is a coffee table 3) behind / in front of them. There is some tea and cakes 4) on / in it. Can you see Milly, Peter's cat? She's 5) above / under the coffee table. She's sleeping, too.

2

Read and write the names.

Tina is next to Paul.
Khalid is behind Rose.
Rose is next to Elisha.
Carlos is in front of Tina.
Paul is behind Elisha.

Tina

3 Look at the picture. Fill in: on (x4), above, under, behind, next to.

This is Tom's room. Can you see him? He's 1) on a rug 2) the bed. Tom's mother is very angry with him. His clothes are 3) the bed. There are empty cans of cola 4) the table, too. His toys are 5) the floor, 6) the chair, everywhere! Where are his books? They are 7) his bed. Look at the picture 8) his bed. It's so dirty! Oh Tom! Clean your room!

Picture Dictation

Your friend describes his room for you to draw it. Show the picture to your friend. Is your picture correct?
