We use the past continuous for an action which was in progress at a stated time in the past, or for two or more actions happening at the same time in the past.

He was studying for his Maths test at 9 o'clock last night.
Mum was reading a book while Dad was watching TV. (two actions happening at the same time)

We also use the past continuous for an action which was in progress when another action interrupted it. The action that interrupted it is in the past simple.

Kate was sunbathing when it started to rain.

Time expressions used with the past continuous:

while, when, as, all day / night / morning, all day yesterday, etc.
