

I saw a bat flying through the sky as I walked home in the evening. The player batted the ball out of the park. She carefully chose a wooden bat for her baseball game.

She spent a lot of time studying for her exams. What time is it? I have an appointment at 2 o'clock. He timed himself while running a marathon.

She went to the bank to deposit her paycheck. We had a picnic by the river bank. The pilot skillfully banked the airplane to the right.

He can run faster than anyone else in his class. She decided to run for president of the student council. The play had a successful run on Broadway.

The dog barked loudly when the mailman approached the house. The tree's bark looked rough and textured. The loud bark of the dog caught everyone's attention.

The surfer rode the wave all the way to the shore. She waved at her friend across the street. The flag waved proudly in the wind.

The soccer match ended in a tie. He lit a match to start the campfire. She tried to match the colors of her outfit.

She used a pen to write her name on the document. The farmer built a pen for his new piglets. The prisoners were penned in a small courtyard.

She spread some strawberry jam on her toast. There was a traffic jam on the highway. He accidentally jammed his finger in the door.

Be careful not to poke yourself with the point of the pencil. She made a good point during the debate. He pointed his finger at the map to show the correct location.