

Re-write the sentences substituting the marked words with the correct pronoun (me, you, him, her, it, us, them)

1. I want my mum to make noodles for lunch today.

I want her to make noodles for lunch today.

2. Paul wants John to play football on Saturday.

3. Ellen's mother wants Ellen to practise piano every day.

4. My dad wants my brother and I to go to the doctor tomorrow.

5. I want my cousins to come to Barcelona.

6. Mary wants the dog to sit still.

7. He wants Anna and Tania to cook tacos.

Complete the sentences with the appropriate pronoun (me, you, him, her, it, us, them)

1. Our teacher wants _____ to speak English in class.
2. My dad wants _____ to make my bed every morning.
3. Your friend phoned. She wants _____ to phone her back.
4. Our parents are ill. We want _____ to get well soon.
5. My friend Julia is in London. I want _____ to send me photos.
6. My brother is very good at maths. His friends always want _____ to help them with their homework.