

Name: _____ Class: _____

ECOTOURISM

1. Listen to these sentences. Pay attention to the intonation & repeat.

1. I'll also try to bring snacks with less packaging. ↪
2. What's an eco-friendly fieldtrip? ↪
3. Can we bring snacks? ↶

CONDITIONAL TYPE 1&2

2. Decide whether these statements can be real (R) or not (N).

	R	N
1. If I were a bird, I would fly.
2. If we work hard, we will get good marks.
3. If my parents were 10 years younger, they would travel around the world.
4. If it rains tomorrow, we will stay at home.

3. Complete these sentences with the words below.

VOCABULARY

responsible aware impact

profit

crafts

1. We can help local artists make a _____ by buying handmade arts and _____.
2. Many tourists are not _____ of the _____ of their actions on the local community.
3. Both local people and tourists should be _____ for protecting the environment.

YOUR NOTE

Statements often have a falling tone at the end.

Wh-questions often have a falling tone at the end.

Yes-No often have a rising tone at the end.

Conditional sentences Type 1 talk about real situations in the present or future that we believe are possible or likely to happen.

If + present simple, ... (will) ...

Conditional sentences Type 2 talk about imaginary situations that are impossible or unlikely to happen.

If + past simple, ... (would) ...

We can use were instead of was after If in Conditional sentences Type 2.