

→ Verb To Be ←

I am a teacher.
You are an engineer.
He is nine years old.
She is a doctor.
It is good.
We are teachers.
You are lawyers.
They are waiters.

Possessive Adjectives

I	have a pet.	My	pet is small.
You	have a dog.	Your	dog is big.
He	has a wife.	His	wife is young.
She	has a husband.	Her	husband is old.
It	has a house.	Its	house is small.
We	have a car.	Your	car is new.
You	have a house.	Our	house is old.
They	have coffee.	Their	coffee is hot.

Fill in the correct form of the verb to be:

- a. They _____ doctors.
- b. Lisa _____ a teacher.
- c. Liz and Kate _____ young.
- d. He _____ a lawyer.
- e. We _____ friends.
- f. I _____ from Brazil.
- g. My dog _____ playing.
- h. My friend _____ an engineer.

Correct the mistakes:

- a. Liza are from Brazil.
- b. Ben am my friend.
- c. Liz and Kate is doctors.
- d. He am a lawyer.
- e. We is friends.
- f. I is from Brazil.
- g. My dog are playing.

Fill in the blank spaces:

- a. We have a cat. _____ cat is playful.
- b. You are a teacher. _____ students are attentive.
- c. They are from Brazil. _____ country is beautiful.
- d. You have a car. _____ car is new.
- e. They have a dog. _____ dog is friendly.
- f. I am a doctor. _____ job is interesting.
- g. She is a teacher. _____ students are smart.
- h. It has a house. _____ is small.