

1. This country gained (independ) in 1920.
2. I know this man. I met him at a (confer) two years ago.
3. There is no (differ) between John and Roger. They are twin brothers.
4. They gave an (assure) that the report would be ready by Friday.
5. She always checks her (appear) in a mirror before going out.
6. Being in Sharon's (present), was being enveloped in grace.
7. I like Jennifer because she is relatively simple, a victim of circumstances beyond her control. But I have more (confide) in myself.
8. I don't like him. He's full of (arrogant) .
9. I always emphasize the (important) of English language.
10. He isn't he  we'd do it in his father's