

Listen to this recording and fill in the gaps

A new report says (1)_____ around the world are not keeping up with new and tricky (2)_____ of computer crime. The international (3)_____ company Cisco Systems released the report. It says businesses are trying to (4)_____ computer system (5)_____ using old technology and (6)_____. The report describes big (7)_____ businesses have made in trying to stop computer (8)_____. Cisco examined 115,000 (9)_____. It says almost all of them had security (10)_____ in their software. Jason Brvenik is a top (11)_____ at Cisco Systems. He told VOA that computer (12)_____ will attack systems owned by a company or an (13)_____. He said criminals will work together to target a computer system and (14)_____. Brvenik said companies are starting to (15)_____ their computer systems continuously. This helps them (16)_____ and quickly answer attacks. He said many companies do not (17)_____ attacks until (18)_____ days or more after they happen. However, Brvenik said new programs are able to identify attacks (19)_____. Tara Sinclair is with the jobs listing (20)_____ Indeed.com. She says computer attacks have caused a large increase in the need for computer security experts. The company Symantec is the largest seller of security software in the world. It says the number of people needed for computer security jobs will grow to 1.5 million by 2019.