

PERIODIC TEST 1

ET 7

No. 1 – 5 Write about a future invention that will probably exist 25 or 50 years from now.

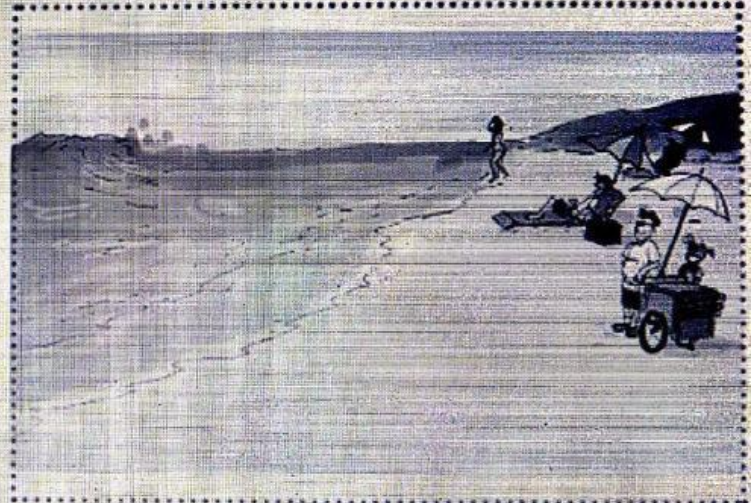

Friends, I want to talk about my idea of a future

No. 6 - 10 Compare the two places using as many comparissons as possible.

Picture 1

Picture 2

II. VOCABULARY

Directions: Choose the correct answers.

A.

Situation: Josh and Sarah are having a chat during a school recess.

Sarah: Hi, Josh. Here, have a look at this picture.

Josh : Wow, what a/an 11. (A) official building. It's so huge.
(B) spacious
(C) beautiful

Sarah: It's the San Francisco City Hall. I took the picture last month.

Josh : The building is very 12. (A) classical. Do you think so, too?
(B) serene.
(C) portable.

Sarah: Yes, and it 's well taken care of. It is equipped with modern
13. (A) inventor, such as the infrared signals for the blinds.
(B) gadgets,
(C) benefit,

Josh: Cool. Hey, look at these beautiful 14. (A) residences. The person
(B) statues.
(C) paintings.
who made them must be a very good sculptor.

Sarah: I don't know who made them. They were added to make the building more
15. (A) enormous.
(B) elegant.
(C) rude.

B.

Dear Sam,

I'm sorry for what happened to you lately. I understand that those problems made you feel very 16. (A) upset. Well, don't be sad. You should find a place to relax and refresh yourself. Come to Nganjuk. I know a perfect place for a cool
(B) annoying.
(C) rude.

17. (A) crush, Sedudo Waterfall.
(B) palace,
(C) getaway,

Sedudo waterfall is located about 30 km from Nganjuk. The trip up the hill offers visitors a 18. (A) scenic mountain view. You must

(B) luxurious
(C) delicious

19. (A) behave along the path following the river. When you get there, you
(B) shoplift
(C) trek

will see the pool where visitors take a bath. I'm sure you will be

20. (A) impressed by this pristine waterfall. I can assure you that it will
(B) magnificent
(C) wonderful

make you feel better.

Regards,

Alice

III. GRAMMAR

A.

Directions: Choose the correct answer for each number.

Situation: Myra and Ryan are talking about their holiday during class recess.

Myra : Hi, Ryan. I heard you went to New York with your family during the holiday.

Ryan : Yeah. We visited places of interest, including the Statue of Liberty.

Myra : Wow! You must 21. (A) to tell me about it. How high is it?
(B) tell
(C) telling

Ryan : The height from ground to torch is 93 meters. It is 22. (A) as high as
(B) higher than
(C) less high than

Monas, which is 132 meters tall. The copper covering of the statue that

23. (A) attached to the iron frame is 3/32 of an inch thick, almost
(B) is attached
(C) is attaching

24. (A) as thick two pennies put together.
(B) thicker than
(C) as thick as

Myra : I see. Did you go up the stairs to the crown?

Ryan : Yes, I did. There are 352 steps inside the statue 25. (A) to reach the
(B) reaching
(C) reaches

crown. ... Hey, why don't you look at the pictures tomorrow? I'll bring them for you and explain everything.

Myra : Sure. Thanks.

B.

Directions: Choose the correct answer for each number.

- How do we imagine the role of robots in the future? According to Professor Hiroshi Ishiguro, we
- 26. (A) have worked closely with robots in the future. He
(B) work
(C) will work
- believes that robots will be
- 27. (A) cheaper than cars. The professor has
(B) more cheaper than
(C) as cheaper as
- devoted himself to creating androids—robots that look and feel like humans with realistic skin, hair, as well as facial and body movements. He
- 28. (A) shouldn't be
(B) mustn't
(C) doesn't have to
- present to give lectures. His twin android could substitute for him
- 29. (A) to deliver
(B) delivering
(C) delivered
- pre-recorded lectures in Osaka University while he went overseas. The professor has also created an android that
- 30. (A) to make to read the evening news and
(B) is made
(C) makes
- no one can tell the difference.

IV. READING COMPREHENSION

Directions: Read the two letters below. Choose the correct option that answers each question.

A.

Hi Brenda,

How're things going back there in Indonesia? Here in Madrid everything is OK. I begin to like this city. How time flies. It has been five months since you saw me off at Sukarno Hatta Airport. It seems like yesterday. Have you read the novels that I gave you? I bet you have finished reading all of them, knowing you. About the scarf you gave me, I'm sorry, I lost it. But, I have a picture of me wearing it. Don't be disappointed. Ok? Hey, you know what? Last month, my father, my two little brothers and me spent a night in Granada, southern Spain, to see the Alhambra palace. Do you remember the documentary film that Mr. Shanker, our geography teacher showed us? The elegant and spacious Alhambra was one of those magnificent palaces. As what we saw in the film, there weren't many statues in the palace. But, most of the walls and ceilings are filled with sculptures. The details are fascinating. I guess I have to stop now. It's already ten o'clock. I'm sleepy. I'll tell you more about the Alhambra in my next e-mail.

Miss you,
Ratna

31. Where does Ratna live?
(A) In Granada.
(B) In Indonesia.
(C) In Madrid.
32. What did Brenda give Ratna before leaving for Spain?
(A) A novel.
(B) A scarf.
(C) A movie.
33. The letter shows that Brenda...
(A) likes photography.
(B) likes geography.
(C) loves reading

34. What is TRUE about The Alhambra?
(A) It has big statues.
(B) It has unique ceilings.
(C) It has fascinating sculptures.
35. We can understand that Ratna and Brenda were...
(A) neighbors.
(B) classmates.
(C) pen friends.

B.

Dear Ruben,

I don't think your problem is a serious one. I understand your disappointment about leaving your country behind. Moving from one country to another and changing schools are not easy for a teenager like you. You not only have to adjust to a new environment and new friends, but also have to cope with new teachers of different characters. Besides, for sure, you will miss your old friends. But, look at it from the bright side. Not many youngsters get the opportunity to go around the world and to learn other people's cultures closely. Your life will be colorful because you have the chance to meet people with different ethnic backgrounds. The chance to see the beauty of each country is a rare opportunity for anyone, and I think you have to be thankful for this. You also have to understand your father's situation. He serves the country, and he has to accept what the country decides for him. So, enjoy your life. Learn as many things as you can from the country that you live in. Send me a postcard and tell me about your first impression of Jakarta. Have a nice journey!

Aunt Libby

36. What makes Ruben feel disappointed?
(A) Moving to another country.
(B) Learning new subjects at school.
(C) Living in an unfamiliar neighborhood.
37. In the new country, Ruben may have to...
(A) change his character.
(B) invite his new friends home.
(C) adjust to his new teacher.
38. What is one of the positive points of living in another country?
(A) There are more people to share with.
(B) There are more scenic views to see.
(C) There are more job opportunities to look for.
39. What does Ruben's father probably do?
(A) He is a diplomat.
(B) He is a teacher.
(C) He is a writer.
40. We know from the letter that...
(A) Ruben will spend his holidays in Jakarta.
(B) Ruben visits his aunt in Jakarta.
(C) Ruben will stay in Jakarta.

15 minutes

V. WRITING (10 points)

Directions: Write a paragraph of 80 to 100 words. Your writing will be scored on grammar, vocabulary and the number of words you use. The maximum score of your writing is 10 points. Choose one of the situations below.

Situation A: Your pen pal who lives in the US plans to spend his/her school holidays in your city. He/she asks you to recommend a good hotel. Actually, there are two good hotels in your city. Describe the two hotels by writing your pen pal an email. Briefly compare the two hotels so that your friend can decide which is better.

Situation B: Your best friend wrote you a letter telling you that he/she has a fussy classmate. It was okay in the beginning, but recently his/her classmate has become more annoying. Reply to his/her letter by advising him/her what to do to deal with the fussy classmate.

THIS IS THE END OF THE PROGRESS TEST.