- We often use the rather than a possessive adjective with this pattern: Verb + person + preposition She kissed the baby on the cheek. (because the person whose cheek it is has been mentioned.)
- Own is used with possessive adjectives to emphasise the fact that something belongs to someone and no one else. We've got our own car. or We've got a car of our own.

Reflexive / Emphatic Pronouns

- Reflexive pronouns are used after certain verbs (behave, burn, cut, enjoy, hurt, look, laugh at, introduce, dry, teach, etc.) when the subject and the object of the verb are the same. Did you hurt yourself? They look after themselves. They are also used with the preposition by when we mean alone / on sb's own. He likes travelling by himself / on his own.
- Reflexive pronouns can be used after be, feel, look, seem to describe emotions or states. She doesn't look herself these days. They are also used after prepositions but not after prepositions of place. You should take care of yourself. BUT He is sitting in front of me. (NOT: in front of myself)
- Certain verbs do not normally take a reflexive pronoun. These are: wash, shave, dress, afford, complain, meet, rest, relax, stand up, get up, sit down, wake up, etc. She washed and (got) dressed. We don't say: She washed herself and dressed herself. However, we can use a reflexive pronoun with wash or dress when we talk about young children or animals. Although Eliza is only 3 years old, she can dress herself. That elephant is washing itself!
- Emphatic pronouns have the same form as reflexive pronouns but a different meaning. They emphasise the noun or the fact that one person and not another performs an action. I myself organised the party. or I organised the party myself. They also mean without help. He painted the house himself. (without help) They go after nouns, pronouns, at the end of a sentence or after but and than. You should count on no one but yourself.

Note these expressions: Enjoy yourself! (= Have a good time!), Behave yourself! (= Be good!), I like being by myself. (= I like being alone.), She lives by herself. (= She lives on her own.), Help yourself to some cake. (= You're welcome to take some cake if you want some.), Do it yourself. (= Do it without being helped.), Make yourself at home! (= Feel comfortable!), Make yourself heard. (= Speak loudly enough to be heard by others.)
