

Item I: Read and choose TRUE / FALSE (6 pts)

Agatha Christie's real name is Mary Clarissa Miller. She was born on September 15, 1890, in Torquay, Devon, in the southwest part of England. She was a well-known writer. Mary wrote a lot of books. Most of them are murders but some of them are romance novels and plays. She worked in a hospital and in a pharmacy during the World War I. She learned a lot about poison and that's why she included it in her mystery books.

1.- _____ She was a murderer.	4.- _____ She only wrote about romance.
2.- _____ She was a soldier.	5.- _____ She taught about poison.
3.- _____ She lived in Chile.	6.- _____ She worked in a pharmacy.

Item II. Read the text again and complete the sentences (5 points)

a) Name:
b) Place of birth:
c) Year of birth:
d) Nationality:
e) Occupation

Item III: Complete each sentence with the transformation of the verbs (6 points)

1) Last night I _____ an airplane. (fly)	2) Everyday the children _____ some cookies. (eat)
3) Every Christmas , we _____ presents. (give)	4) Yesterday I _____ some money. (lose)
5) Every morning I _____ water. (drink)	6) Last week I _____ in a marathon. (run)

Item IV: Complete the biography with the missing verbs (5 points)

WERE - LIVING – WAS – BUYED – EATED – ATE – LIVED – WAS – BOUGHT

She _____ (be) the Queen Elizabeth. She _____ (be) born on April 21st, 1926.
She _____ (live) near the Big Ben. She _____ (buy) a big old castle in Balmoral.
She _____ (eat) fish and chips.

TOTAL SCORE: 22 points