Exercises on relative clauses.

A. Fill in the gap with the relative pronoun:

1. The letter _____ came yesterday is from my mother.
2. The person _____ house we stayed in.
3. We are getting a new teacher tomorrow, _____ is great news.
4. I was invited by Peter _____ I met at work.
5. I know a lot of children _____ would love this game.
6. My house, _____ is very small, needs painting.
7. She is marrying a guy _____ father doesn't seem to like her.
8. This is the boy _____ played rugby.

B. Read this story.

Alfonso was a student. Alfonso studied Business Administration. He didn't like it. He started working on Marketing. He loved it. He decided to move to Berlin. He had visited the city before. He worked at a company. The office was in the city center. He met Monica there. He fell in love with her. He met her dad last year. Monica's dad is very serious. Alfonso gets along very well with her dad. Alfonso respects him a lot. They will get married in November. They will celebrate it at Monica's dad's house.

Now fill in the gaps.

Alfonso was a student _____ studied Business Administration _____ he didn't like. He started working on marketing _____ loved. He decided to move to Berlin _____ He had visited before. He worked at a company _____ office is in the city center. He met Monica there with _____ he fell in love. He met her dad last year _____ is very serious. But Alfonso gets along very well with her dad. _____ He respects a lot.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

C. Match the first part of the sentence with the relative pronoun and object.

1. I didn't recognize the man...	Which I grew up.
2. The movie...	When he was a child.
3. She doesn't recall the place...	Whose soundtrack I liked, wasn't good.
4. He used to have a dog...	What you say.
5. I remember the time...	Who robbed me.
6. This is the house in...	Whom she brought the present.
7. He can't understand...	Where she lost her keys.
8. She didn't tell me to...	When we were all together.

D. Convert the following sentences into relative clauses.

1. I saw a man. The man was wearing a black hat.

_____

2. I live in a house. The house has big windows.

_____

3. I forgot something. He told me something.

_____

4. I can't recognize someone. Someone is calling.

_____

5. There was a baby in the park. The baby was very cute.

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS