

A / An – The

- A / An is used only with singular countable nouns to talk about things in general. We don't use a / an with uncountable or plural nouns. We can use some instead. A / An is often used after the verbs be and have. A dog is a domestic animal. (Which dog? Dogs in general.) Bring me some milk, please!
- We can use a / an or the before a singular countable noun to refer to a class of people, animals or things. However, we omit a / an or the before a noun in the plural when it represents a class. A / The dolphin is a mammal. Also: Dolphins are mammals. Exception: Man is a mammal, too. (NOT: The man)
- The is used with singular and plural nouns, countable and uncountable ones, to talk about something specific or when the noun is mentioned for a second time.
Whose is the van parked in front of our house? (Which van? The one parked in front of our house.)
He found a cat in the park. He took the cat home. (The word 'cat' is mentioned for a second time.)
- The is also used with the words beach, cinema, country(side), ground, jungle, radio, sea, seaside, theatre, world, etc. He likes going to the theatre. We usually say television without the. We often watch television. but: Turn on the television (set). We also say: He lives near the sea. but: They are at sea (= they are sailing). We normally omit the before the words last and next when we talk about a period of time immediately before or after the moment of speaking.
He graduated last year. I'll meet you next week. I went to the gym on Saturday but the next day I stayed at home.
