

General statement in the introduction for an essay

1. In last few decades, smart phones have been increasing (popular).
2. In the era of (advance) technology, Internet been playing an indispensable role in our life.
3. In the era of increasing (global), how to preserve our national identity has been a(hot) debated topic.
4. In number of countries, it is a (high) debated issue whether students should evaluate their teachers after each course.
5. It is (refute) that learning a foreign language is of vital (important).
6. In many countries, environmental pollution long been a matter of great concern.
7. (Obese) among children has been the cause of wide-spread concern.
8. Whether children should learn English at an early age not has been a (controversy) topic.