

VOCABULARY REVIEW: Crime

A.
arson	assassination	assault	bribery
burglary	embezzlement	forgery	manslaughter
fraud	hijacking	kidnapping

Complete the sentences using the words from the box above.

1. The person who broke into a house and stole a TV was convicted of _____.
2. The woman who lied on her income tax forms was charged with _____.
3. The men who used knives to take over an airplane were guilty of _____.
4. The man who attacked me and hit me over and over was convicted of _____.
5. The woman who stole money from her employer was charged with _____.
6. The businessman who offered money to the politician is being accused of _____.
7. The person who got in a fight with his friend and killed him committed _____.
8. The man who burned down his house for the insurance money is charged with insurance fraud and _____.
9. The person who took my children and demanded that I pay $1,000,000 was convicted of _____.
10. I signed my mom's name on one of her checks, so I was charged with _____.
11. The man who shot the president was convicted of _____.

B.

murder	perjury	pick-pocketing	theft
robbery	shoplifting	smuggling	terrorism
	trespassing	vandalism

Complete the sentences using the words from the box above.

12. The person who lied in court was charged with _____.
13. The man who stole people's money in the train station was accused of _____.
14. The man who used a gun to steal people's money in the park was convicted of _____.
15. Robbery, burglary, and pick-pocketing are all kinds of _____.
16. The juvenile who painted his name on my neighbor's house was charged with _____.
17. The woman who stole cigarettes from the convenience store was convicted of _____.
18. The men who hijacked the plane and flew it into the church were guilty of _____.
19. The person who killed his boss after planning for several weeks is being charged with _____.
20. The woman who tried to take drugs into Brazil was convicted of _____.
21. The kids who were playing on my lawn were acquitted of _____ because there was not enough evidence to convict them.