Dear Wildlife Magazine,

Here's my photo of an elephant for the competition. You can see that it's an African elephant because it's got _____ ears than an Asian elephant. African elephants often live in the savannah and Asian elephants live in the jungle. It's _____ and _____ in the savannah than in the jungle. The African elephant uses its big ears to stay cool.

African elephants are _____ and _____ than Asian elephants. They can grow 4 metres tall and weigh up to 7,000 kg. They aren't _____ – they're _____ than Asian elephants. They're also _____ than Asian elephants at holding things.

I hope you like my photo.

Jack
