

1 VOCABULARY phrasal verbs

a Complete what the people are saying in each picture.

- 1 Can you turn down the radio? It's very loud!
- 2 Don't worry! The match will be over soon.
- 3 We need someone who can look after our dog while we're on holiday.
- 4 Take off your shoes before you come in!
- 5 Can you fill in this form, please?
- 6 Why don't you put on a different jacket? That one looks awful!

b Complete the sentences with a verb from the list.

find get go look set take throw turn

- 1 Chris listens to the radio to find out about the traffic in the morning.
- 2 I never get away old books, I sell them on eBay.
- 3 It's very cold in here. Can you turn up the heating?
- 4 Use your dictionaries to look up the words you don't understand.
- 5 I don't get on with my boss. He thinks he's always right.
- 6 They always go off really early when they go to the airport as they don't want to miss their flight.
- 7 Can you wake me up if my alarm doesn't go off?
- 8 We're going to set back our new coffee machine because it doesn't work properly.

c Complete the conversations with a phrasal verb from the list.

don't get on drop you off give up goes off looking forward to it pick you up run out try it on turn it off

- 1 A To tell you the truth, John and I don't like each other.
B I know. I think it's sad that you two don't get on.
- 2 A I don't smoke anymore.
B That's fantastic – well done. When did you give up?
- 3 A Jilly is excited about our holiday!
B Yes, she's really looking forward to it.
- 4 A Can you help me? I want to see if this dress fits.
B Sure. You can try it on in the changing room over there.
- 5 A When you go to bed, please don't leave the TV on all night.
B Don't worry. I promise I'll turn it off.
- 6 A Our neighbour's car alarm started in the middle of the night.
B That's really annoying. Our neighbour's house alarm goes off all the time.
- 7 A Jack's dad can't take me to school today. He's ill.
B Don't worry. I can pick you up on my way to work and drop you off this afternoon.
- 8 A I'm a bit worried that we don't have enough petrol.
B It's only 10 miles to the next petrol station – I don't think we'll run out.