

Open the brackets.

I ___(go) to school every day.

You ___(read) a lot of books.

He ___(drink) milk in the morning.

We ___(listen) to music every evening.

They ___(speak) about their day in the evening.

She ___(sing) at her music lesson every Wednesday.

It ___(sleep) at the door.

I and my friend ___(go) to the cinema a lot.

A cat and a dog ___(play) together.

A dog ___(eat) its food.

A cat ___(like) mice.

Two cats ___(like) mice.

One cat and one rabbit ___(live) in the same room.

Three friends ___(go) to the forest every autumn.

A real friend ___(help) you if you need it.

My friend always ___(help) me if I need it.

Their dog ___(have) a lot of toys.

Our cat ___(have) a lot of toys too.

Mary ___(have) a sister and a brother.

Fred ___(live) in that house.

Mary and Fred ___(live) in that house.

My mother ___(work) five days a week.

My father ___(work) at school.

My mother and father ___(work) very much.

My parents ___(love) me a lot.

I ___(like) chocolate.

He ___(write) a letter to his mother once a week.

The next train ___(leave) at 11 AM.

She ___(go) to cooking class on Friday.

The US president ___(live) in the White House.

Mrs. Sally Jones ___(teach) science at Kentucky High School.

The baby _____ (cry) when she is hungry.

The moon _____ (orbit) the earth.

They _____ (watch) television every night.