

MAIN IDEAS

Match each incomplete statement of a main idea from the article with the best ending. Use your notes to help you.

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| h 1. Light, expectations, anatomy, and surrounding colors all affect our color perception, and . . . | a. you are colorblind or old.                                     |
| _____ 2. Light affects how we see color because . . .   | b. understanding them can help us make better color choices.      |
| _____ 3. Our expectations and memory affect our perception when . . .                                       | c. a color looks brighter next to its opposite color.             |
| _____ 4. Anatomy can affect your color perception if . . .  | d. we see what we expect to see, even though it may be incorrect. |
| _____ 5. Because surrounding colors affect our color perception, . . .                                      | e. it always has some color in it.                                |