

Day: _____

Date: _____

Anger Management

bad habit - get angry easily - concerned

bought - drawing paper - felt each day

control his anger - problems - proud

Begin your story with:

Rick was a boy who had a very.....

Rearrange the sentences. Write numbers 1-10. One has been done for you.

	His mother was very concerned about his bad habit.
	His mother would always look at his painting and ask him how he felt each day .
	Every day, Rick would draw and paint on it.
	He would get angry easily at anything and anyone.
	So, his mother thought of an idea.
	With each passing day, Rick was able to control his anger by drawing, painting and talking to his mother about his problems .
	She bought him a stack of drawing paper .
10	Rick's mother was very proud of him.
	Rick was a boy who had a very bad habit of getting angry at every little thing.
	She told Rick to draw and paint on the drawing paper whenever he got angry.