

Name Surname

Date Grade

SCIENCE TEST – WEATHER

1) Complete the gaps using the words in the box.

Earth / oxygen / breathe / plants / things / gases
--

The atmosphere protects the _____. It is made up of nitrogen (78%), _____ (21%) and other _____, such as carbon dioxide (1%). All living _____ on Earth need these gases to live. For example, humans need oxygen to _____ and _____ need carbon dioxide for their photosynthesis.

2) Are these sentences true (T) or false (F)? Correct 1 word in the false sentences to make them true.

The Ozone layer is in the Troposphere. _____

The Thermosphere is the coldest layer of the Atmosphere. _____

The Northern Lights happen in the Stratosphere. _____

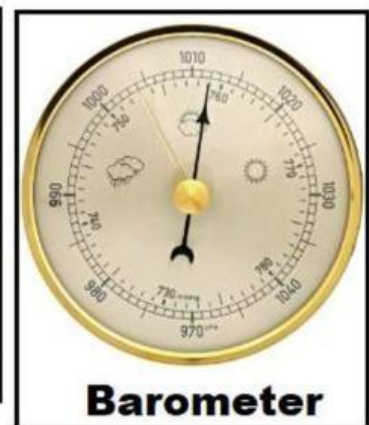

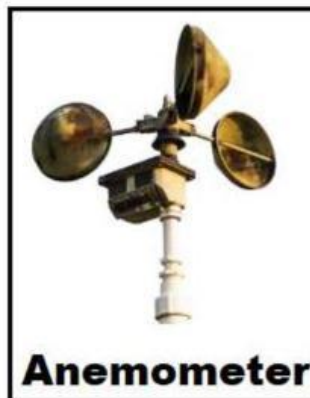

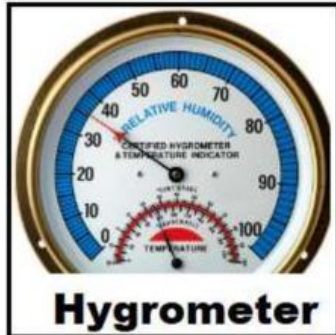

The Mesosphere is the transition between the Atmosphere and Space. _____

The Troposphere is next to the Earth's surface. _____

3) Read the questions and answer them properly.

a) What's the main difference between "Weather" and "Climate"?

b) Match each instrument with the magnitude they can measure.

AIR PRESSURE

HUMIDITY

AMOUNT OF RAIN

WIND SPEED

c) Write 3 things that climate has an influence on:

4) Complete the missing information in both the map and the table.

City	Weather	Temperature	Cardinal point
Madrid	Cloudy	15° C	Middle
Palma de Mallorca	Sunny	28° C	East
Salamanca	Foggy	12° C	West
Pamplona
Cádiz			