Join the following sentences with the correct relative pronoun. Use commas when necessary. When you can, write THAT and omit the relative pronoun.

1.Nicholas is new in the school. He is my brother's best friend.
-

2.I went to a hotel last night with my boyfriend. My parents were there last year.
-

3.The computer finally broke up. I bought it ten years ago.
-

4.They say that Cristobal Colon discovered America. He was taller than his enemies.
-

5.I lost my wallet last Friday. I have all my documents there!
-

6.My cousin has a dog. Its eyes are very big and black.
-

7.That's the mobile phone. My parents bought it for my sister on her last birthday.
-

8.Pablo isn't going to school these days. He is in the same class as my brother.
-

9.We went to a museum yesterday. I bought some souvenirs there.
-

10.Those are the children! Their mother is always very kind to us.
-

11.Do you see that high-school? I studied there when I was a little child.
-

12.My grandmother is cooking right now. She is a very talented person.
-

13.I have been reading a book lately. Its plot is mesmerising.
-

14.Do you see that girl? She is in my class and is always participating.
-

LIVEWORKSHEETS

15.Hugo always comes to the park at this time. His father is younger than his mother.
-

16.I have already done my last exam. It has been the most difficult without any doubt.
-

17.My cat detects every single human at the moment. It is very intelligent.
-

18.She doesn't want to go to the cinema. She hates watching films there.
-

19.That's the boy. His name is Fernando.
-

20.Those flowers smell delicious. My boyfriend has bought them for me.
-

21.I'm going to the vet later on. They operated my dog there.
-

22. June is always going to be my favourite month. We usually go on holidays during that month.
-

23.The new teacher is fantastic. She is from the United States.
-

24.This bookshop is very nice. I usually buy books here because they are cheaper.
-

25.I saw a very big house yesterday. It was built by my grandfather.
-

26.My friends are always very nice to other people. I have known them since childhood.
-

27.Those cookies are delicious. My aunt made them for the family.
-

28.My cousin is studying Medicine. Her marks are really outstanding.
-

LIVEWORKSHEETS