

Listening Assignment

Listen to the following sentences and answer the questions below.

Sentence 1:

Sentence 2:

Sentence 3:

Sentence 4:

1. Where is the emphasis on sentence 1?
  - a. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - b. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - c. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - d. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - e. No emphasis.

2. Where is the emphasis on sentence 2?
  - a. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - b. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - c. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - d. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - e. No emphasis.

3. Where is the emphasis on sentence 3?
  - a. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - b. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - c. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - d. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - e. No emphasis.

4. Where is the emphasis on sentence 4?
  - a. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - b. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.

- c. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - d. I asked you to buy me a bunch of red roses.
  - e. No emphasis.
5. What is the meaning of sentence 1?
- a. Just what it says.
  - b. It means I was the one who asked you, not someone else.
  - c. It means I asked you; I didn't ask someone else.
  - d. It means I wanted red roses, not another color.
  - e. It means I wanted roses, not another type of flower.
6. What does sentence 2 mean?
- a. Just what it says.
  - b. It means I was the one who asked you, not someone else.
  - c. It means I asked you; I didn't ask someone else.
  - d. It means I wanted red roses, not another color.
  - e. It means I wanted roses, not another type of flower.
7. What does sentence 3 mean?
- a. Just what it says.
  - b. It means I was the one who asked you, not someone else.
  - c. It means I asked you; I didn't ask someone else.
  - d. It means I wanted red roses, not another color.
  - e. It means I wanted roses, not another type of flower.
8. What is the meaning of sentence 4?
- a. Just what it says.
  - b. It means I was the one who asked you, not someone else.
  - c. It means I asked you; I didn't ask someone else.
  - d. It means I wanted red roses, not another color.

e. It means I wanted roses, not another type of flower.