

Vocabulary

1 Complete the table with the related nouns and adjectives.

noun	adjective
1 <input type="text"/>	cheerful
2 <input type="text"/>	flexible
modesty	3 <input type="text"/>
idealism	4 <input type="text"/>
5 <input type="text"/>	shy
6 <input type="text"/>	thoughtful
pessimism	7 <input type="text"/>
honesty	8 <input type="text"/>

Mark:  / 8

2 Complete the sentences with the adjective or noun form of the words in bold.

- I don't expect any sympathy from my brother. He's never been very .
- My friend Hannah is always cheerful. Her  puts everyone in a good mood.
- I haven't really got any ambitions. I guess you could say I'm not very .
- Some parents quickly lose  with their children. I think they need to be more patient.
- If you want children to be creative, you have to encourage their .
- Our art teacher shows great enthusiasm for our pictures. I don't know how he can be so .
- My sister's self-confidence has grown since she was young. Now she's almost too .

Mark:  / 7

3 Circle the correct verbs.

- To be a firefighter, you need to be / have / lack physical courage.
- A career in politics is not for those who be / lack / show self-confidence.
- A comedian needs to be / have / lack a good sense of humour in order to make people laugh.
- It's important for a teacher to be / have / show good at communicating.
- You need to be / have / lack lots of energy to work with small children.
- You have to be / lack / show lots of initiative if you want to get a promotion.

Mark:  / 6

Word Skills

4 Complete the sentences with the phrasal verbs below and a pronoun.

ask out brought up called off came across came up with count on look up to take after

- We were supposed to be playing a football match tonight, but they've  because of the rain.
- I found some old photos this morning. I  when I was tidying my chest of drawers.
- The person I admire most is my grandfather. I  because he's travelled so much.
- My father has excellent organisational skills. People say I .
- We discussed the question of homelessness yesterday. Our teacher  at the start of the class.
- I've thought of an idea for our project. I  when I was walking home from school yesterday.
- Sam would like to go out with Cathy, but he's too shy to .
- The most reliable person I know is my sister. I know I can  whenever I need help.

Mark:  / 8

5 Complete the sentences with the phrases below.

Could I ask Could you I'd be I'd like I was May I

- tell me what the hours of work are?
- wondering if I would need any experience.
- to know which days I would have to work.
- ask what the job involves?
- interested to know how much the salary is.
- you if I would be paid weekly or monthly?

Mark:  / 6

Grammar

6 Complete the dialogues with who, which, where and whose. Where it is possible to omit the pronoun, write 'no pronoun'.

- A Who were you talking to on the high street?
B The woman  owns the English Academy.
- A What's in that package?
B It's the book  I ordered online.
- A Which restaurant are we going to tonight?
B The one  we celebrated your birthday.
- A Who's that?
B She's the girl  mother works in the post office.
- A Where are your notes?
B I lent them to the student  I sit next to.
- A Who is that letter from?
B It's from a company  might give me a summer job.