

1. Island. _____ Flat land that is at,
or higher than sea
level.

2. Lowland. _____ A natural or artificial fiber used for building.

3. Stilts. _____ Dry land with few plants and little rainfall.

4. Eco-house. _____ A piece of land completely surrounded by water.

5. Desert. _____ A rubber cushion that contains compressed
air
and fits around a wheel.

6. Tire. _____ A closed metal container,
where some types of a
rink
and food are sold.

7. Can. _____ A stake or used to support
a structure above ground or water.

8. Straw. _____ An environmentally low-impact home.