3 B2 READING

Use of English: Part 3
Word Building

Use the word on the right to form a word that fits in the gap

Rubies: The Eternal Flame

Rubies stand as the most treasured and _____(VALUE) gemstones, capturing the fascination of civilizations throughout history. Adorned by royalty, these gems _____(SYMBOL) passion, vitality, and an enduring flame of love. Over the ages, rubies have garnered a distinctive reputation as the ultimate _____ (EXPRESS) of romantic devotion, featured _____ (PROMINENT)in legends and myth. Despite their timeless allure, rubies reveal a surprisingly simple chemical _____ (STRUCTURE), primarily composed of aluminum oxide and traces of chromium, which impart their rich red hue.

Radiating a fiery red brilliance, rubies possess unparalleled _____ (AESTHETIC) qualities. They have the _____ (ABLE) to refract light with intensity, creating a vivid spectrum of color that outshines many other gemstones. First discovered in regions like Myanmar and Mozambique, rubies were _____ (HISTORICAL) used to embellish _____ (CULTURE) artifacts, believed to bring good fortune and shield against malevolent forces. Their deep symbolism extends across cultures, _____ (REPRESENT) not only love and passion but also _____ (STRONG) and _____ (PROTECT).

LIVEWORKSHEETS