I am in an Irish dance group and two years ago, we helped to break a <sup>1</sup>world / pop record. It was very exciting. The record was for the <sup>2</sup>more / most people doing Irish dancing in a line. There were more <sup>3</sup>that / than 2,000 people!

In Irish dancing you need to keep your body and arms very <sup>4</sup>wavy / straight, but move your legs and <sup>5</sup>feet / teeth quickly. Some dancers wore funny costumes, but I wore my dress, white socks and special shoes. There are two types of shoes for Irish dancing – we used the hard shoes which are much <sup>6</sup>loudest / louder than the softer shoes. The soft shoes look <sup>7</sup>as / like black ballet shoes.
