

EXERCISE 117 – PREPOSITIONS

Rewrite these sentences using the correct words in the brackets.

e.g. I went to her house (on, in) Friday.
I went to her house on Friday.

1. My brother has come home (from, to) school.
2. We are sitting (at, on) a bench.
3. Your uncle walked (for, to) the post-office just now.
4. Please give this book (from, to) him.
5. He paid a dollar (with, for) the book.
6. He has been here (for, since) last year.
7. Her dress is different (from, with) mine.
8. My brother left (to, for) Australia yesterday.
9. They will go there (by, on) foot.
10. Will you sit (between, beside) me?

EXERCISE 118 – PREPOSITIONS

Rewrite these sentences using the correct words in the brackets.

e.g. We can see (across, through) glass.
We can see through glass.

1. He put his bicycle (on, against) the wall.
2. He drew a line (across, through) the page.
3. She stopped (against, by) the shop to look at the dress.
4. The earth moves (through, round) the sun.
5. They went (up, through) the hill (with, by) car.
6. If I were rich, I would travel (through, round) the world.
7. He fell (by, down) the stairs and broke his leg.
8. The cars have stopped. A tree has fallen (through, across) the road.
9. The thief went (on, into) the house (through, in) the window.
10. If you walk (against, along) this road, you will reach the market.

EXERCISE 119 – PREPOSITIONS

Rewrite these sentences using the correct words in the brackets.

e.g. Put this glass the table. (in, on, to)
Put this glass on the table.

1. The dog ran the field. (for, across, through)
2. The horse jumped the fence. (along, over, by)
3. Did you come here Friday? (on, from, to)
4. He has been sleeping 2 o'clock. (for, since, to)
5. They have been working ten hours. (since, for, to)
6. We turned and looked at him. (in, on, round)
7. I shall wait them. (at, for, by)
8. He has borrowed a book the library. (to, by, from)
9. You mustn't throw things the floor. (in, with, on)
10. Please keep this book the cupboard. (by, in, of)
11. The train went the tunnel. (through, against, from)
12. He put the ladder the tree. (in, over, against)

EXERCISE 120 – PREPOSITIONS

Write cut these sentences putting in the correct words in the boxes.

near over under after

1. She lives the hospital.
2. The dog ran the thief.
3. He was hiding the bed.
4. The boy jumped the drain.

up behind between above

5. The moon is shining my head.
6. She was walking her father.
7. Kim Seng and Pak Meng shared the money themselves.
8. The monkey is climbing the tree.

at for since in

9. I put the pen my pocket.
10. We have not seen Poh Wah two months.
11. They have not met John..... last Friday.
12. She was sitting the table when I saw her.

along against across through

13. Look before you walk the road.
14. There are many houses that road.
15. A big river flows the town.
16. Can you fight them?

EXERCISE 121 – PREPOSITIONS

Fill in the blanks with the words in the brackets. You must use all the words.

e.g. Will you come me a swim? (for, with)
Will you come with me for a swim?

1. The train arrived Singapore 6 o'clock.
(at, in)
2. They walked the edge the jungle. (of, along)
3. He jumped the river and swam it. (into, across)
4. The man got and walked of the room.
(out, up)
5. She lives her uncle the sea. (with, by)
6. He always walks his garden the evening.
(in, round)
7. If you look the telescope, you will see a large bird the sky. (through, in)
8. He will come out his room a minute.
(in, from)
9. The boy fell the tree the river. (into, from)
10. She put a blue dress and went the party.
(on, to)