

Passive: - present simple	am/is/are + past participle
- present perfect	have been/has been + past participle
- past simple	was/were + past participle
- future simple	will be + past participle

Rewrite the sentences in passive voice.

1. They gave Mary a new house.
2. Helen will send the email on Monday.
3. He takes a lot of photos on holiday.
4. John will collect money tomorrow.
5. The zookeepers have captured the lion in the forest.
6. The teacher asked a very difficult question.
7. Mick sometimes takes me to the station.
8. Our salesmen have sold all the carpets.
9. The sheep have eaten a lot grass.
10. We usually leave a saucer of milk for the cat.
11. They gave me 10 dollars last week.
12. People wrote a lot of interesting books in the 19th century.
13. The students write homework at school.
14. People see foxes in the gardens at night.
15. The cleaners have thrown away the papers on my desk.
16. They have closed the zoo this week for health reasons.

17. The gardener will water the flowers next week.
18. We always leave our boots by the door.
19. The company will offer her a higher salary next week.
20. Maria crashed into the blue car last week..
21. The police have caught a lot of criminals in London.
22. The football supporters drank a lot of beer after the match.