B. READING AND WRITING

1. Read and choose the film that is most suitable for each person. Write the correct letter (A, B,C..) in the box:

A – The Delivery Jim Treace starts in this well-known comedy about two workmen who have to deliver a long piece of wood to a house. But unfortunately, the performances are poor, and the film is too long for such a simple joke. B – And Tomorrow We Find You A fast-moving adult story about a San Francisco policeman in danger. Based on a real-life happening, it keeps you guessing right until the last minute. Although there are no big stars, there are some fine performances. C – The Ends of the Earth A story based on a real-life journey to the South Pole. This film contains some quite wonderful wildlife photography- make sure you see it when you have a chance, or you'll be sorry. D – Island of Fire You get spectacular scenery and lots of thrills in this action-packed story, in which a young see-captain rescues terrified villagers from a volcanic island in the South Seas. E – Out of School Here we live through a day in the life of an American teenager who has problems not only with his parents and their boring friends but also with his first girlfriend who just doesn't seem to understand him. F – A Time of Silence Don't forget your handkerchief for this story of a young college boy and girl who manage to survive all the pressures of modern life. And what an unforgettable wedding scene! G – A Private Party A wonderfully funny comedy, which takes place in the 1940s. A reporter and his very worried wife try to save a sheep from the local butcher. The actors really make the most of this clever script. H – Who Shot Malone? It's a surprise to see so many famous names wasting their time in this dull detective story. In the end, you find yourself asking, '' Who cares?"	Jo is studying art at university. She usually goes to the cinema on Friday evenings. She enjoys films that are based on real life and from which she can learn something. Sheila has decided to take her mother to the cinema for her birthday. They both like love stories that have happy endings. Brian is a hard-working medical student. He doesn't have very much free time, but he likes going to the cinema to relax, and enjoys a good laugh. Adam wants to take his 8-year-old Mark to the cinema at the weekend. They want to see a film with plenty of excitement. Harry and Joyce go to the cinema about twice a month. They particularly like detective stories and do not pay much attention to which actors are in the film.

2. For each question, choose the correct answer:

One day my dad said, 'Why don't we have a street party?' This means that the street is closed so cars can't use it, and people put tables and chairs out in the street, then have a party! Dad said there was one in 1977 and he still remembers it well. Everyone loved it! I couldn't believe that since 1977 they never had another one. If it was so good, why not do it again?

We started to organise it, together with some other people. I helped to make the web page, so everyone on the street knew about the party and could post their old photos from the party in 1977. There were some pictures of my dad when he was a kid, together with his friends, who have moved away from the street now. It was interesting to see that the buildings on the street haven't changed at all!

My mum was a bit worried about the party. 'But a lot of people on the street don't really know each other', she said. 'What if they don't have anything to talk about?' I just said, 'Relax, Mum. It'll be great.'

So, what was the party like? It was fantastic! My friends and I really liked speaking to an old lady called Louisa. She's 89 and was telling us about when she and her friends were our age. So now I always chat to her when I see her on the street. I didn't know who she was before, so I'm glad we had the party.

1. Why was Will surprised? a. His father wanted to have a street party. b. There hasn't been a street party for a long time. c. Many people remembered the last street party	2. What did the photos from 1977 show? a. The street still looks the same now. b. There are more children living in the street now. c. The same people still live on the street now.
3. Why was Will's mother worried? a. She thought that the party was too expensive. b. She thought that people might not come to the party. c. She thought that the guests might not talk to each other.	4. Will and his friends enjoyed a. hearing Louisa's stories. b. meeting Louisa's friends. c. telling Louisa about their lives.
5. What is the best title for the article a. Why I love street parties b. The street party we had c. How to have a street party
