Pronunciation

Read the definitions of words from page 64—65 of the course book then click the microphone button  and say the word.

This activity will only work if you use Google Chrome.

1. A_____ refers to subjects and activity connected to studying at school or university.
2. Someone who is a_____ wants to be very successful and works hard to make sure that they succeed.
3. Your a_____to a task or problem is the particular way you deal with it.
4. A_____ is the thought or interest you give to something you are listening to or watching.
5. To do something on a particular b_____ means to do it in the way described.
6. Someone who is b_____is very clever and intelligent.
7. D_____is making people follow rules and punishing them if they break the rules.
8. Someone who is e_____ shows their interest in something in a very lively way.
9. A l_____is someone who teaches at a college or university.
10. You use o_____to describe people, places, or things that come from a foreign country.
11. If you p_____someone to do something, you make them do it by encouraging them very firmly or forcing them to do it.
12. The r_____of a person, place, or organisation is how good or bad people say it is.
13. A r_____is something that is needed in order for something else to happen, or for someone to be allowed to do something .
14. A r_____place or district is not very safe because there is a lot of violence or crime there.
15. If you s_____something, you deliberately do not do it or have it .

LIVEWORKSHEETS