Pencil Me
Prepare to be different

READING COMPREHENSION

LEVEL B1+

Name: ..... Class: ..... Date: .....

PRACTICE 006A

Read the passage carefully. Choose the correct form of the verb from the box and write its letter (A-H) in each blank.

USE EACH WORD ONLY ONCE

(A) go	(B) went	(C) has gone	(D) had gone
(E) is going	(F) was going	(G) are going	(H) were going

Nasreddin's mother had to buy some groceries from the market. As she (16)_____ to leave the house, she instructed him to watch the door. Nasreddin sat beside the door. Soon, the telephone rang. He (17)_____ to answer it.

It was his uncle who wanted to speak to Nasreddin's mother. Nasreddin told him that his mother (18)_____ to the market.

"Tell your mother that my family and I (19)_____ to pay her a visit later. Go and tell her now!" said his uncle, feeling impatient.

Without hesitation, Nasreddin removed the door and dragged it to the market!

Adapted from Tales from Nasreddin Hodja Stories by Alpay Kabacali

Read the passage carefully. Choose the correct preposition from the box and write its letter (A-H) in each blank.

USE EACH WORD ONLY ONCE

(A) on	(B) up	(C) down	(D) over
(E) opposite	(F) along	(G) around	(H) through

The fire alarm rang incessantly. An announcement was made over the Public Address System for pupils to stop everything and queue up (20)_____ the corridor outside the classroom. Once the pupils had lined up, Miss Grizzly led them (21)_____ the stairs to the ground floor. The pupils were walking briskly and orderly. Soon they walked (22)_____ the gates, out of the school building and reached the void deck of the block of flats just (23)_____ the school. Miss Grizzly was relieved that her class was safe and other classes were on their way to the void deck.

Written by a Maha Bodhi School teacher

LIVEWORKSHEETS