

1. Complete the text with the words from the box.

Democratic	decentralized	parliamentary
equality	Constitution	freedom

The four highest values of the Spanish _____ of 1978 are _____, justice, _____ and political pluralism.

It defines Spain as a _____ state and a _____ monarchy and that territorial control of the state is _____.

2. The official symbols of the Spanish State. Complete with the missing words.

Flag	Three	Plus Ultra	Marcha Real
yellow	words

There are _____ official symbols of the Spanish State. The _____ has three horizontal stripes. They are red, _____ and red. The coat of arms has the Spanish national motto, _____. The national anthem is called the _____. It has no _____.

3. Match the institutions with its function.

a.	Supreme Court
b.	Constitutional Court
c.	Senate
d.	Congress

	Represents the autonomous communities.
	It is where the deputies work.
	Makes sure laws are in accordance with the Constitution.
	Can accept or reject sentences passed in lower courts.

4. Answer these questions about the Spanish Institutions.

1. Who is the Head of State in Spain?

- a) The King b) President of the Party c) Prime Minister

2. What is the name of the official house of the Head of the Government?

- a) Moncloa b) Parliament c) Zarzuela

3. In which institution do senators work?

- a) Courts b) Congress c) Senate

4. Which job roles work in the judicial system?

- a) Judges and magistrates b) Senators and deputies c) King and queen

5. Who chooses the Head of the Government?

- a) All the Spanish citizens b) Only men over 18 years old c) Spanish citizens over 18 years old.

5.-Complete the outline.

