LIVEWORKSHEETS

Junk food is very harmful because it slowly destroys the health of our young children. The word itself gives an impression that it is not healthy and dangerous to our body. As it tastes so delicious, people become addicted to eating it on a daily basis. Advertisement on social media showing mouth-watering junk foods do not spread the correct message to audience on the harmful effects of junk food. The problem is more serious than you think.

Various studies show that junk food impacts our health negatively. They contain higher level of calories, fats and sugar. On the contrary, they have very low amounts of healthy nutrients and lack dietary fibres. Parents must discourage their children from consuming junk food because of the ill effects it has on one's health.

The number of calories your body requires to stay fit is not fulfilled by this food. For instance, foods like French fries, burgers, candy and cookies, all have high amounts of sugar and fats. Therefore, this can result in long-term illness like diabetes and high blood pressure. This may also result in kidney failure. So, it is important not to indulge in too much junk food because there are many long-term side effects.

PART 4

Yusof is a search and rescue pilot. He flies a helicopter to look for and save people in difficult situations. How long has he done this job? "I learnt to fly at university and I've been a pilot for 12 years. I choose this job because I love flying. It's also very rewarding - it feels good to help people and keep them safe." What does he enjoy the most about his job? "I love working as part of a team. We all work really well together."

Noriah is a vet. She worked with wild animals in Pahang since she left university. She looks after the animals to make sure they're healthy. 'I chose this job because it's exciting - there's always something new and challenging. Last week, we rescued a baby elephant that was stuck in the mud.' And what does she like most about her job? 'Working with wildlife is very special. Every animal teaches us something different.'

Iskandar has been a police officer for eight years. But he doesn't drive a police car - he rides a horse! Bess, his horse, is very clever and friendly. Why did he choose this job? 'I love horses and every day is different,' says Iskandar. 'One day we're at a parade, the next we're at football match. When there are lots of people at an event, there can be problems, so we need to make sure nothing goes wrong. I enjoy meeting new people most. People like police horses so they talk to me and Bess a lot.
