

	To make something happen.		When the Earth starts shaking and moving.		A system used to measure the size of an earthquake.		To move from side to side.

	A rocky piece of the Earth's surface.		A huge wave that is caused by earthquakes in the ocean.				